Take in Phuket Island's natural beauty as you are driven along beach roads through Patong, Karon and Kata. Visit the 'Three Beaches' viewpoint where you can take in a great vista of the beautiful bays of Kata Noi, Kata, Karon and Kho Pu Island, at one of the island's best scenic spot.

This tour gives an insight into the highlights of the 'Pearl of the Andaman'. It also includes a leisurely drive around Phuket town to view The Sino-Portuguese style buildings. The beginning of the tin boom in the 19th century led to construction of many fine mansions and shops that are still well preserved. The architectural style, typical of the region, is described as Sino-Portuguese and has a strongly Mediterranean character. Shops present a very narrow face onto the street but stretch back a long way. Many, especially on Dibuk Road, have old wooden doors with Chinese fretwork carving. Other streets, forming what might be called "Old Phuket," with similar structures are Phangnga, Yaowarat, Thalang, and Krabi, and a walking tour of the area is easy and delightful. Some other old European-style buildings of note are the Provincial Hall (Sala Klang), the Phuket Courthouse (San Changwat), and Nakhon Luang Thai Bank.

Other attractions visited are Gems factory. Gems are more than jewelry. They are signs of wealth and essential female accessories, therefore, the finest and beautiful materials are used for their manufacture. Gems Gallery – is a store with the finest choice of jewelry items made from Thai sapphires, rubies and diamonds.

The friendly shop assistants will welcome you in Gems Gallery. Wherever you are in Bangkok, Pattaya, Phuket or Chiang Mai excursion in Gems Gallery starts with a movie about Siam gem stones.

After a short seven minutes movie you will get into jewelry workshop where you will see how the jewelry masters work. You will see how their work is delicate and precise while it is done with rough tools. Thailand does not import jewelry items. They have their own production.

Wat Chalong, This is where stands the cast statue of Luang Por Cham, who helped the people of Phuket put down the Angyee, or Chinese Coolie Rebellion, in 1876 during the reign of Rama V. There are also statues of Luang Por Chaung, and Luang Por Guam, abbots of the temple during later times.

, a Cashew Nut Factory

Phromthep is a headland forming the extreme south end of Phuket. "Prom" is Thai for the Hindu term, "Brahma," signifying purity, and "Thep" means 'God.'

Local villagers used to refer to the cape as "Leam Jao", or the God's Cape, and it was an easily recognizable landmark for the early seafarers traveling up the Malay Peninsula from the sub-continent.
